1. Vacancy will remain open for at least two weeks, or until it is filled. Preference will be given to internal candidates who are at the same grade as the post being advertised, then to internal candidates one grade below the post, and finally to external candidates.

2. Equally-qualified female candidates will be given priority for selection (DPKO Under-Secretary General’s Policy Statement on Gender Mainstreaming). Candidates wishing to return home are also strongly encouraged to apply.

3. Locally-recruited General Service (GS) staff interested in applying for a National/Professional Officer (NPO) post must meet the minimum requirements of the post, including academic qualifications and years of relevant professional experience. Experience in the General Service category does not count as professional experience. If selected, the GS staff member will be required to resign from their current post before taking up the NPO post. There will be no break in service between the two types of appointments.

Duties and responsibilities:

Under the supervision of the Procedures and Training Adviser or the duty designated representative, the incumbent will carry out the following duties and responsibilities:

- Prepare, as required, training programs and materials, presentations and briefings for Electoral Headquarters, Regional, State, and Sector office staff, and Mission personnel
- Coordinate with the National Elections Commission (NEC), if requested, the development and/or review of manuals, procedures, rules and regulations for all aspects of the electoral process, including voter registration, candidate nomination, polling, and counting;
- Follow-up with NEC counterparts at headquarters, regional or sector office level to ensure effective planning, coordination, delivery, monitoring, and evaluation of training activities in preparation for the elections;
- Process electoral training requests and follow up with trainers in the field to ensure that training guidelines are adhered to and training reports generated;
- Develop and deliver appropriate training programs, modules and materials for the transfer of skills to NEC counterparts;
- Coordinate the preparation and organization of training courses through overseeing the booking of training rooms, technology needs and duplication of course materials and other logistical issues;
- Create systems for monitoring training applications, updating and consolidating statistical data and standard reports;
- Perform other tasks as assigned by the Procedures and Training Adviser, or his/her duty assigned representative.
