

The United Nations Mission In Sudan*Office of the Special Representative of the Secretary-General*Khartoum, 31 May 2005

The Special Representative of the Secretary-General for Sudan, Jan Pronk wishes to advise that the Sudanese national who served as an interpreter for the Secretary-General during his visit to Darfur has been requested to report to the authorities in Nyala. This request was repeated a couple of times. The Interpreter has been harassed but not arrested. The SRSG is pleased to note that following discussions with the UN, the local authorities of the South Darfur decided to no longer request the interpreter to report.
